(2) Spouse and Wards:

- a). Eligibility: Regular employees with a minimum of 3-year service.
- b) Scholarship equivalent to 100% of the tuition fee for spouse & wards for UG & PG programmes.
- c) Institute will award such scholarship to the spouse & two children of the employee. Fee waiver will be given to a maximum of two wards admitted under DAVIET Employees quota. Further, the Institute will seek to fill first the seats available under the DAVIET employee quota and only in case number of candidates eligible under DAVIET employees quota exceeds the number of seats available under this quota for a particular branch, then the students topping the merit may be shifted to the open seats provided they get the same or better branch as per their merit. In such eventuality, students shifted in the general merit will be entitled to Scholarship as applicable to students admitted under Employee Wards quota. (Example: If 10 students envisage interest in Computer Engineering and there are only 8 seats under the quota then in that case only, two candidates may be shifted to open merit provided they get the same or better branch in open seats on the basis of their merit. If these two toppers do not get the same or better seat in open merit, then the last two candidates will have to choose branches other than Computer Engineering available under quota).
- d) This will be equal to tuition fee on a semester basis of programs offered by DAVIET.
- 3) Retirement: If an employee retires from service, benefits of fee waiver will continue for the entire period of the duration of the programme even after retirement. This is applicable only for those who have been admitted before their retirement.
